

Quibbletown After-School Clubs: Offerings & Descriptions

Newspaper Club - Advisors: Ms. Crick & Mrs. Buro

Newspaper club is a place where Quibbletown students who are interested in current school news, events, and school wide activities come together. Whether it is the latest story, interview, poetry, or comic Quibbletown Times is sure to have it. Members of the Newspaper Club will use their Press Pass to gain exclusive access to the most up to date Quibbletown content.

Yearbook Club - Advisors: Ms. Gilman & Mrs. Zielinski

Working with club advisors, members of the Yearbook Committee electronically plan, edit, create, and market our Quibbletown yearbook to our students, faculty and staff. Our committee members must be dedicated and creative, with a true pride in Quibbletown Middle School.

Safe Spaces - Advisor: Mr. Sobocinski

Safe Spaces is a club intended to foster an inclusive environment for all students at Quibbletown Middle School.

Art Club - Advisor: Mrs. Flanagan

This club is for art lovers of all levels. Students participating in art club should not be changing for another club. Art club should be their choice. Also students should submit a piece of artwork with their permission slip. Either in hard copy to Mrs. Flanagan in room 24 the art room or digitally in a message in Schoology.

National Jr. Honor Society (Member) - Advisor: Mr. Sobocinski

The National Junior Honor Society is an organization prided on outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, character, and citizenship. (Please Note: Students are invited to apply during the second semester of their seventh grade year, and recommendations by a faculty council determine their acceptance into this leadership organization.)

Student Knights Council - Advisor: Mrs. McClean

Quibbletown student council is a group of student leaders who work with an adult advisor to collaborate with others to impact their school community.

Drama Club - Advisor: Ms. Pamm

Participants in Drama Club will have the opportunity to play theater related games, share their creativity by creating designs for costumes and set designs, and even have an outlet for self-expression by doing improv, monologues, and act out scenes with other members.

Musical/ Theater/ School Play - Advisors: Ms. Fedor, Mr. Zengerle & Ms. Pamm

Students will be learning about theater and will audition to be part of the school play and/or musical. Please note that closer to performance, after school rehearsals will occur Monday – Friday. Parents must provide transportation home on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday (and possibly Thursday if the student is not a bus student).

STEM Club - Advisor: Mr. Batalus

In STEM Club students will problem-solve and build items around the school to benefit the community. Students can also compete in national competitions such as Ecybermission or Google Science Fair. These national competitions open opportunities such as scholarships, paid science expeditions, grants, and other various prizes.

Game Club - Advisors: Mr. Miller, Mr. Patzelt, & Mr. Margugulio

Quibbletown students are invited to Game Club where they will have positive interactions, friendly competition, and loads of fun while playing various games with one another.
